Lo Behold the Lord of VEṄKAṬAGIRI mounted on the nonpareil GARUḌA-the king of birds.

He is the Lord worshipped by INDRA and dazzles with the brilliance of crores of suns. He is GŌVINDA-the bestower of salvation, extolled by a host of virtuous people. He is MUKUNDA, who delights GURUGUHA.

He is the ANANTAPADMANĀBHA in the company of ALAMĒLUMAṄGĀ. The transendental one the cognizable one in this age of KALI, and is surrounded by BRAHMĀ and other celestials. His resplendent form is like that of the dark cloud. the sun and the moon are his eyes. He dwells in the GŌKARṆA KSHĒTRA, which dispels all the sins. He is the repository of compassion and the embodiment of pure conciousness.
